Ernie made a motion seconded by Bob to write a letter to the Board of Selectmen to have the ash tree near the bandstand taken down and replaced as soon as possible

Kingston Envision Notes: waiting for their written results: here are a few points of interest:

Glenn Coppleman - Town Planner there were about 200 people attending,

Bartlett house very important to the town

Values: Green space, Historic Buildings, safety and Water

Community Assets: Families, lack of communications, lack of affordable housing for young and old.

Lack of welcoming, and job opportunities and a place for our youth to meet.

Kingston Destinations – appreciates – walking tours, state park, Need a place where everyone can meet. And Lack of leadership for community development.

History of New Hampshire –loved our plains. They also liked Josiah Bartlett House and the lakes and trails. We hope to get a full report in a couple of weeks.

The AD HOC Comm. A new committee is being formed, including Debby Powers, Ernie Landry, Ellen Faulconer, Virginia Morse, Glenn Coppleman, Lynn Gainty, Jennifer Feoli-Ramsey and Stacey Smoyer. The first meeting will be held on July 7, 2016. The purpose is try to develop a plan for the plains area, RE one way..

Lynne Merrill made a few good suggestions to the group – signage should be all alike .

Brouchure – meeting soon

Bob is working on the copy of the Bartlett House.

Holly and Charlotte are writing to the people who own the Phillips house to see if Bob and Walt can go in and take pictures of it.

Kingston Days, Next meeting to see who is available to help.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 Ernie made the motion and Gail seconded it
