ADDITIONAL ARCHITECTURAL AND STRUCTURAL DESCRIPTION:

The Stevens house is a 1½ story, Greek Revival style structure characterized by gable front orientation to the street, sidehall entry, and classical ornamentation. The entrance has a 4 panelled door flanked by full length sidelights which rise to meet an entablature. All of the windows have six over six sash framed by shutters and partial entablatures. The medium pitched roof is topped by a narrow, corbel capped chimney and the eaves treatment consists of a boxed cornice with a wide frieze and gable end returns. The house rests on a brick and stone foundation. There is a 1 story gable roofed ell projecting to the east.
