ADDITIONAL ARCHITECTURAL AND STRUCTURAL DESCRIPTION:

The Finett lound is all atory; greek revival ctyle structure. The entry is sheltered by a 1 story; gable roofed ell which has a 4 panelled (victorian) door with four lights. All of the windows on the main block have six over one sash. The medium pitched roof is topped by a narrow, corbel-capped chimney and the eaves treatment consists of a boxed cornice with a narrow frieze and slight gable end returns. The structure rests on a fieldstone foundation.

The 1 story, gable roofed ell has clapboard siding, six over one and fixed two pane windows, and a fieldstone foundation. The ell is topped by a narrow corbel-capped chinney and a shed dormer is located on the south elevation. Projecting from the south elevation of the main block and connecting with the ell is a 1 story shed roofed open porch. The 1 story, shed roofed ell projecting to the northwest has clapboard siding two over two windows and a cement foundation.

RELATED STRUCTURES AND CONTEXT: An attached 1 story, gable roofed shed projects to the west of the main block and connects with the barn. The 12 story gable roofed barn has vertical board siding, a sliding vertical board door, and a fieldstone foundation.

BOUNDARY AND ACREAGE DESCRIPTION: 3.9 Acres. Bounded to the N. by Malloy Realty, W. by Senter Transportation Co., S. by Exeter & Hampton Electric, E. by Rt. 125.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Evaluation & Historical Associations):

The Badger House is a well proportioned kneewall example of the Greek Revival style which seems to have had aspirations toward the highstyle examples illustrated in Kingston by the Peaslee houses.
