ADDITIONAL ARCHITECTURAL AND STRUCTURAL DESCRIPTION:
The Stickney House is a 2-story Greek Revival style structure, with its gable end oriented toward the street. The recessed sidewalk entry has a 3 panelled door with one large light. It is flanked by pilasters which rise to meet a full entablature with pediment motif. Window in the over one - story window. The medium pitched roof is topped by a tall corbel capped chimney and the eaves treatment consists of a boxed cornice with a wide frieze. Corner pilasters with recessed panels rise to meet the pedimented gable.
There is a 1 story hip roofed porch along the east elevation.
A 2 story gable roofed all has the same siding, foundation and windows as the main block. It has close eaves.
A 1 story gable roofed shed extends to the east. It has clapboard siding, close eaves, six over six windows, and a horizontally sliding door. It rests on a granite block foundation.

RELATED STRUCTURES AND CONTEXT: A large 1 story gable roofed barn has clapboard siding, six over six windows, horizontally sliding doors, and a fieldstone foundation. There is an attached 1 story shed/garage with the same siding, foundation and windows as the barn.

BOUNDARY AND ACREAGE DESCRIPTION: 3.3 Acres. Bounded to the N. by Cheney Mill Road, S. by Danville Road, E. by Demers, Cheney, and Kerry, W. by Tewksbury.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Evaluation & Historical Associations):
The Stickney Brothers House is a well-developed example of the Greek Revival style and also noteworthy as an example of continuous architecture. The site is particularly complimentary with its acres of open pasture land.

House was built by the Stickney brothers. When one died, his widow married the second brother.
