FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kingston Community Library Annual Plant Sale

KINGSTON- The Friends of the Kingston Community Library (KCL) Annual Plant Sale will be held on Saturday, May 23, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., at the library, located at 2 Library Lane near the Carriage Towne Shopping Center.

The Friends are offering a wide assortment of culinary and fragrant organic herbs, heirloom vegetables, polinator plants, ground cover, annuals and perennials for sale, along with locally grown plants from community members' gardens. Plant lists will be posted on the KCL website.

To keep everyone as safe as possible, the following procedures will be in place during the sale:

- Only 10 people allowed in the sale area at a time
- Wear a face mask and gloves at all times
- Maintain a 6-foot distance from other people at all times (while browsing for plants or standing in line)
- If you have questions about any of the plants or procedures, look for someone in a maroon apron
- Only pick up the plant you will purchase to cut down on excessive handling of plants
- Place all your selected plants in one or more (as needed) of the cardboard flats
- Proceed to the tally area, place your plants in one of the designated spots, and someone will add up your plant total
- Take your plants to the payment table and pay with a credit card (preferred), cash, or check
- Load your plants into your vehicle and you are all set to go

The Friends of the Kingston Community Library is an independent, non-profit organization made up of community members. Their mission is to support the library's ability to provide programs and services to the town residents. The Friends raise funds to furnish items and services beyond the library's basic budget as well as volunteer to assist staff in running programs. The group meets the third Monday of most months at 4:30 p.m., in the library. You are cordially invited to attend.
