Article 02  Land Use

Are you in favor of the following amendment, as proposed by the Planning Board, to Article 201, the Aquifer Protection Ordinance, Section 201.4 Use Regulations, Section C "Maximum Lot Coverage" to read as follows:

"Within the Aquifer Protection District, no more than 15% of a single lot may be rendered impervious to groundwater infiltration in Zone A. In Zone B, no more than 25% of a single lot may be rendered impervious to groundwater infiltration. However, in Zone A lot coverage may be increased up to 35% and in Zone B lot coverage may be increased up to 60% if the applicant can show to the satisfaction of the Planning Board storm water management techniques that would allow for recharge on the property to be developed."

RECOMMENDED BY THE PLANNING BOARD

Article 03  Land Use

Are you in favor of the following amendment, as proposed by the Planning Board, to amend Article 109, Commercial Zone C-II, Section 109.9, Lot Coverage to read as follows:

"Lot coverage shall be no more than 35%. However, lot coverage may be increased up to 60% if the applicant can show to the satisfaction of the Planning Board storm water management techniques that would allow for recharge on the property to be developed."

RECOMMENDED BY THE PLANNING BOARD

Article 04  Land Use

Are you in favor of the following amendment as proposed by the Planning Board to amend the Definition Section of the Town Zoning Ordinance: Article Preamble II, Definitions, B by adding the following:

1. Agriculture: For the Town of Kingston agriculture, farm and farming are defined as found in RSA 21:34-a. Farm, Agriculture, Farming, and as amended. This definition is as follows:
   I. The word "farm" means any land, buildings, or structures on or in which agriculture and farming activities are carried out or conducted and shall include the residence or residences of owners, occupants, or employees located on such land. Structures shall include all farm outbuildings used in the care of livestock, and in the production and storage of fruit, vegetables, or nursery stock; in the production of maple syrup; greenhouses for the production of annual or perennial plants; and any other structures used in operations named in paragraph II of this section.
   II. The words "agriculture" and "farming" mean all operations of a farm, including:
   (a)(1) The cultivation, conservation, and tillage of the soil.
   (2) The storage, use of, and spreading of commercial fertilizer, lime, wood ash, sawdust, compost, animal manure, septage, and, where permitted by municipal and state rules and regulations, other lawful soil amendments.
   (3) The use of and application of agricultural chemicals.
   (4) The raising and sale of livestock which shall include but not be limited to all beef and dairy cattle, steer, oxen, goats, sheep, swine, horses, mules or other equidae, as well as domesticated strains of buffalo, bison, llamas, alpacas, emus, ostriches, poultry, rabbits, yaks, elk (Cervus canadensis), fallow deer (Dama dama), red deer (Cervus elephas), and reindeer (Rangifer tarandus).
(5) The breeding, boarding, raising, training, riding instruction, and selling of equines.
(6) The commercial raising, harvesting, and sale of fresh water fish or other aquaculture products.
(7) The raising, breeding, or sale of poultry or game birds.
(8) The raising of bees.
(9) The raising, breeding, or sale of domesticated strains of fur-bearing animals.
(10) The production of greenhouse crops.
(11) The production, cultivation, growing, harvesting, and sale of any agricultural, floricultural, viticultural, forestry, or horticultural crops including, but not limited to, berries, herbs, honey, maple syrup, fruit, vegetables, tree fruit, grapes, flowers, seeds, grasses, nursery stock, sod, trees and tree products, Christmas trees grown as part of a commercial Christmas tree operation, trees grown for short rotation fiber, compost, or any other plant that can be legally grown and harvested extensively for profit or subsistence.
(b) Any practice on the farm incident to, or in conjunction with such farming operations, including, but not necessarily restricted to:
(1) Preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market, or to carriers for transportation to market of any products or materials from the farm.
(2) The transportation to the farm of supplies and materials.
(3) The transportation of farm workers.
(4) Forestry or lumbering operations.
(5) The marketing or selling at wholesale or retail, of any products from the farm, on-site and off-site, where not prohibited by local regulations. Marketing includes agritourism, which means attracting visitors to a farm to attend events and activities that are accessory uses to the primary farm operation, including, but not limited to, eating a meal, making overnight stays, enjoyment of the farm environment, education about farm operations, or active involvement in the activity of the farm.
(6) Irrigation of growing crops from private water supplies or public water supplies where not prohibited by state or local rule or regulation.
(7) The use of dogs for herding, working, or guarding livestock, as defined in RSA 21:34-e, II(a)(4).
(8) The production and storage of compost and the materials necessary to produce compost, whether such materials originate in whole or in part, from operations of the farm.
III. A farm roadside stand shall remain an agricultural operation and not be considered commercial, provided that at least 35 percent of the product sales in dollar volume is attributable to products produced on the farm or farms of the stand owner.
IV. Practices on the farm shall include technologies recommended from time to time by the university of New Hampshire cooperative extension, the New Hampshire department of agriculture, markets, and food, and appropriate agencies of the United States Department of Agriculture.
V. The term "farmers' market" means an event or series of events at which 2 or more vendors of agricultural commodities gather for purposes of offering for sale such commodities to the public. Commodities offered for sale must include, but are not limited to, products of agriculture, as defined in paragraphs I-IV. "Farmers' market" shall not include any event held upon any premises owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by any individual vendor selling therein.
